A Word from His Grace

by Duke Kate Ghanston

Next week we will be Clan.

I hope many from Pegasus Valley go. To foster that result, I will be encouraging people to carpool.

If you are going to Clan and have space for extra people let me know, how much space you have and when you plan to go and come back. If you wish to go to clan but need assistance, let me know when you would like to go and come back.

Those asking for rides should at least expect to donate money for gas.

In the weeks to follow, we will be gearing up for crown quals, an opportunity for people to show off their stuff and show the dedication needed to run for office. If you don't like how the current reign went, now is your chance to do something about it. Run for office.

While you can't run for office if you aren't 18 (and won't be by Harvest War) there is a position made especially for you: Heir Apparent. To qualify for Heir one must qualify in 5 art events and fight in 5 war events, and pass reeve and corpora tests.

I hope for an impressive showing by Pegasus Valley at both Clan and Crown Qualifications.

From our Recently Rescued Regent

Dear populace,

Thank you for coming to rescue me in Lost Souls. I apologize for the confusion that my recent demonic possession may have caused. I am happy to report that I am rid of that wretched evil, and am fine except for a splitting headache. I have recently been away under the ministrations of healers with vast experience in curing such ailments.

On my travels, I encountered a warrior by the name of Ted. He has opted to follow me from his homeland, and assist me in my quest to find relics that may restore my health and unite our lands. I am fortunate to have him by my side, because his valiance and loyalty are above reproach.

On my return trip, I had the wonderful opportunity to see our friend, Eques (Tye Dye). She sends her warm wishes and her best intentions.

On another matter, the Gathering of Clans is quickly approaching. Those who are interested in caravanning and carpooling should solidify their arrangements for transport this week. I look forward to seeing our people participating in this event for the honor and glory of Pegasus Valley.

I wish to thank those who will stay and guard our land. I know that our homes will be well-protected under your auspices.

Thank you for all of your hard work and loyalty.

Sincerely,

Your Regent, Dru-Kara

SAD NEWS FROM OUR RESIDENT VINTNER AND BARKEEP

Greetings populace and readers alike,

It is with a heavy heart that I announce that due to mundane obligations the Harvest War Bar this year will not be open per say by me as I have accepted a transfer to Austin, Texas with my job and I will have to be out there by August 20th which also means no Harvest War for me as well. I know this may come as a surprise for many of you that have grown to see Nightmare's Bar as a signature of a great Harvest War but it will not be gone forever it is merely taking a break. Should you wish to hoist your tankard, goblet or bottle when at Harvest War I thank you but know that I along with the Bar shall return one day with a lot more tasty beverages and spirits.
